Chairperson Welcome:

We welcome new Parent nominee Chris Walsh, and Community nominee Linda Norman to the Board of Management.

Principle Report:

Anti-Bullying & Child Protection/Covid19 – There are no Bullying or Child protection issues to report within the school.

We are practicing good hygiene etiquette within the school and following all guidelines of Covid-19 where applicable.

Treasurer Report:

Cleaning Fee is quite high, review costs & discuss at next meeting.

Sanitary bins needed for next year. Contract agreed with Gleaming Clean.

End of Year documentation: PA income & expenditure-BOM happy to confirm the purchase. Treasurer has requested to be notified of cheque expenditure where possible.

School Business:

Review of the Admission Policy Amendment – Circular 75/2022 regarding the decision NCSE have final decision of places given in the ASD unit within schools. Temporary site -issues lack of infrastructure/space within the school (Health & Safety)- reinforces need for Permanent Site to facilitate ASD /Additional Needs Classes

Plean Scoile 3-year plan – Principal has requested an Inspectorate visit to the school to support SSE process – Focus on Wellbeing Statement & Framework alongside Primary Language Curriculum

Chairperson Updates:

Building development update. We discussed the possibility of moving to the new site due to lack of space in our current location.

Projected Enrolment:

We have reached our threshold - Applications for Junior Infants. However this is a fluid figure. We hope to secure at least half of the applications received.

A.O.B:

Santa visit 19th December. To be confirmed.

PA have planned a Festive Disco in the Community Centre 17th December to raise funds for the exploration dome/or Music at school.

Also holding a Christmas Jumper day on the 20th of December to coincide with the Craft Day in the school. BoM wish to thank PA and happy to support these events.
